Principal's Report

Dear Parents,

Parent Information and Consultation Session

Thank you very much to all parents who participated in the Parent Information and Consultation Meeting about the implementation of the Positive Behaviour Support Program. It was well attended and we were able to get lots of ideas and opinions from parents. The next step in the implementation of the Positive Behaviour Support Program is to ask the teachers the same questions and then students. We are meeting with the teachers this Wednesday.

I also want to remind parents about the Debney Meadows Primary School Annual General Meeting (AGM) of School Council. It is on Monday 30th March 3:30 to 5:00pm and is very important that parents are informed and participate in decisions about the school. Attendance at this year's AGM is a good way to achieve this.

We hope to see you there and really appreciate your support and input.

Christine Nash

Principal

School Uniform

Student uniforms are looking terrific. Feedback from the parents at the two Parent Information sessions is that it gives the general public the impression that we take the school and learning very seriously. We hope students continue to respect our uniform policy and we are looking forward to the day that all Debney meadows Primary School students are in full uniform.

Reminder that we have black pants and white hijabs available to be ordered at the office.

Diversity Rocks at Debney Concert

Congratulations to the those students for representing Debney Meadows Primary School on Sunday at the Diversity Rocks Concert at Debney Park:

Students from the senior choir sang five songs beautifully with Megan singing an excellent solo. A big thank-you to Duncan Foster for teaching the songs to the choir in preparation for the concert.
